

Spinner

This is a toy that was popular many years ago. It was primarily made with large buttons.

It consists of a disc with two equally spaced holes. I have made my disc with an offset turning. You can experiment with different shapes, sizes, and colorful decorations.

This is a nice way to use up that wood scrap makes a nice give-away!